INSIDE YOUTH

A Summer To Remember

My prayer for you is that Summer 2012 will be a summer to remember. Not only do I want you to make fun memories with your family and your church, but I also want you to come away from the summer with memories of God's Word and work in your life that will last a lifetime. We're going to spend intentional time each week this summer writing our prayers in journals so we can remember what God has done. We're also going to be tackling one of the toughest spiritual disciplines – scripture memory. I hope you'll join us on this journey of growing closer to Christ and share Christ with others. Make this a summer you won't soon forget.

Inside this brochure you will find a full list of Space Invaders locations. Our Sunday nights at Space Invaders will be where each new scripture we are memorizing will be introduced. You won't want to miss a single Space Invaders. However, if you do – here's a full list of the scriptures we're memorizing this summer:

Backyard Bible Clubs

July 23-27

This summer the youth ministry will sponsor a Backyard Bible Club for children in a local neighborhood near the church. We're partnering with Child Evangelism Fellowship to share the Good News of Jesus with kids in our area. Student missionaries (including our own Aaron Ross, Brittany Eberhart, Caroline Ross & Emily Atchley) from CEF will help us lead these clubs. We will have a training session on Sunday afternoon, July 22. During the week we will meet each morning to go out to club sites and be done each day around lunchtime. This is a great opportunity to share the Good News of Christ with kids in our community. Plan to be part of this week.

As our summer draws to a close we're headed to North Carolina for a great back-to-school weekend retreat. We're going to the National White Water Center in Charlotte for some awesome high adventure and rafting fun on Friday, August 10 and then we will spend the night at Great Wolf Lodge in Concord. On Saturday, August 11 we will spend the entire day in the Great Wolf Lodge Water Park. All teenagers are invited, including all rising 7th graders. The cost is $100.
